Attorney General Herbert Brownell, Jr., announced today that Yuri A. Rastvorov, the Soviet official who sought the protection and assistance of American authorities, has been granted temporary entry into the United States under the auspices of the Department of State, and is now in this country. The Japanese Government has been kept appropriately advised.

His entry was authorized under the discretionary powers vested in the Attorney General by the Immigration and Nationality Act.

Yuri A. Rastvorov has been in consultation with American officials since his arrival in the United States. He has also been interviewed in the United States by Japanese officials.
